

Please read the following regarding your booking:

1. If you receive the confirmation email from PayPal, we have received your payment. We will send you a separate email to confirm all the booking details, and provide other helpful information.
2. Your deposit is non-refundable. Should you wish to change the date of your booking, let us know in advance and we will do our best to accommodate you.
3. Please note that your outstanding balance is due on arrival, payable in cash only (Thai Baht), or with credit card and a 4.9% fee. There are several ATMs near our office and a currency exchange as well.
4. If there should be any pre-existing medical conditions or prescription medications, please let us know before confirming your booking.
